LOANED HIS WHOLE FORTUNE

Reynolds' Bank Also Wrecked by the Woman With "the Remarkable Eyes."

750,000 FOUND TO

BE WORTHLESS PAPER.

Physicians Claim Mrs. Chadwick Is In Perfect Health—Is Somewhat Perturbed When She Reads the Accounts of the Discovery of Her Double Dealing—She Will Not Return to Cleveland If Released on Bond, But There Is Little Likelihood of Securing Bondsmen.

New York, Dec. 10.—Mrs. Chadwick is still languishing in the Tombs this morning, but before the day is over her lawyer, Philip Carpenter, is expected to deposit $15,000 bail, which will give the woman her freedom.

After breakfast this morning she read in the morning papers accounts of the discovery that the $5,000,000 securities held by Banker Reynolds, were worthless. This was the first she knew of the fact had been made public.

After reading the papers she paced her cell. Mrs. Chadwick has quite regained her remarkable nerve. Dr. Levin, the physician, declared this morning that the woman is perfectly sound, physically. To the guard before her this morning she said, "Well, this is the last day of this torture, thank heaven."

It is practically certain Mrs. Chadwick will not go to Cleveland if she cannot bail, and she is under orders from Commissioner Shields to appear here him a week from today.

It is learned today that two lawyers, one from Chicago and one from Philadelphia had an interview with the prisoner last night. In case she released on bail secret service men will keep close watch on her movements.

$5,750,000 Worthless Securities.

Cleveland, Dec. 10.—The mysterious securities held in trust by Banker Reynolds for Mrs. Chadwick, which are announced as valueless yesterday, consists of the following notes: For $5,000,000, signed by Andrew Carnegie and a certificate of trusteeship which states that Carnegie has his possession stocks and bonds amounting to $7,500,000, held in trust for Mrs. Chadwick.

This paper also has the signature of Carnegie. The papers represent the principal on which Mrs. Chadwick conducted her financial system.

The note for $5,000,000 is believed to have been written and signed by same person who executed the note for $5,000,000 and $250,000 held by the Oberlin bank. The note for $500,000 was executed in 1902. All these securities will likely be held in evidence at the Cuyahoga county grand jury investigation here today. Banker Reynolds is said to be loaned Mrs. Chadwick his entire fortune.

At 11 Mr. Carpenter had not obtained the bail, and seemed to have confidence that the cash will be forthcoming.

Receiver for Securities.

Cleveland, Dec. 10.—H. W. Bell was this morning appointed receiver of Chadwick alleged securities held by Banker Reynolds.

Borrowed $800,000.

Cleveland, Dec. 10.—On the high authority it is now positively known that Mrs. Chadwick borrowed $800,000 in Pittsburgh. The names of those who advanced the money are disclosed.

HAWAII ASKS FUNDS.

Wants Steps Taken to Eliminate Disease From Island.

Washington, Dec. 10.—Estimates of the appropriations submitted for the Territory of Hawaii by Governor Carter and forwarded to congress by Secretary Shaw are as follows: Dredging Honolulu harbor, $250,000; refunds to territory, $175,022; federal building for Honolulu, $1,000,000; federal building at Hilo, $100,000.

As a part of the estimates there is submitted as an appendix a letter from the Honolulu chamber of commerce addressed to the governor soliciting his assistance in the matter of making Honolulu a "clean port" as against tropical diseases and declaring that to this end Honolulu should be made disease proof.

There is also attached a letter from the Merchants' Association of Honolulu calling attention to a serious depression in the wholesale and retail business of Hawaii, the causes assigned being "the losses of customs revenue amounting to $5,000,000 during the four years since annexation."

To Corner Salmon Output.

Portland, Or., Dec. 10.—Owing to the well-defined report that John Cudaby, the Chicago packer, is endeavoring to secure entire control of the salmon industry in this section, keen interest is manifested in the sale today of the property of the defunct Pacific Packing and Navigation company. Should Cudaby be successful in securing the property, it is believed that he will also take over the property of the North American Fisheries Company, if he has not already done so, thus giving him control of the largest fishing concerns on the Pacific Coast.

Seven Teams in Race.

New York, Dec. 10.—Three more teams dropped out of the terrific sprint during the night Seven teams remain. At 8 this morning Root-Dorlon and Vanderstuyf-Stol are still leading. Score, 2158.5. The Samuelson-Williams score is 2158.4.

TWO THOUSAND TREES WANTED

THIS NUMBER TO MEET PENDLETON'S DEMAND.

Furnishing Evergreen Trees and Boughs is a Profitable Business Just Before Christmas—Most of Them Come From Upper McKay—Trees Ranging From 50 Cents to $2 Each, and Boughs About $5. Per Wagon Load—Larger Demand Than Usual.

It requires about 2000 trees of all sizes and kinds to supply the Christmas demands of Pendleton.

Already the farmers from the foothills are bringing in loads of trees for decorations in the stores and later will bring in hundreds for home Christmas trees.

This is a very profitable trade for a month before Christmas and half a dozen energetic farmer boys make small stakes from it. The trees sell from 50 cents to $2 each, according to the size and kind, and the boughs and limbs net the farmers about $5 per wagon load.

Most of the trees come from the Upper McKay, although a few are shipped in on wood cars from Kamela and Meacham. The amount of Christmas trees and decorations used this year promises to be very much larger than usual, on account of the general prosperity of all classes of people, and especially large quantities will be used by merchants in decorating.

PRISON SEEKS RELEASE.

Remarkable Case of Usury Brought to Light in Colorado.

A remarkable case of usury has been brought to light in Denver, Col. The Associated Press says: "Thomas Porter, an employ of the Union Pacific railroad in court this morning, asked to be freed from penance and involuntary servitude, to which he has been subjected by the Star Loan company."

"Porter complains that because he borrowed $60 in 1900 on which he has paid back $470, he has been forced to assign his wages for life and, according to his computation, he will never become cleared of that loan of $60. Porter, seeing that he was going deeper into the mire, went into the bankruptcy court."

"The claims of the Star Loan company against him were scheduled as a portion of his liabilities. On August 18 he secured his discharge, absolved from all his debts. The loan company did not accept this discharge and as soon as another month's salary was coming to Porter, the life assignment was filed with the railroad company and the money was paid into court by the employer. The loan company avers that Porter still owes it $142."

FEDERAL JUDGE BAKER REMOVED

Guilty of Offensive Partisanship and Other and Worse Misdemeanors.

LABOR UNIONS ALSO

"HAVE IT IN FOR HIM."

Albuquerque Good Government League Memorializes the President Against Him—Jurymen and Jury Commissioners Tampered With and the Territorial Law Against Gambling on Sunday Is Not Enforced—Second Lieutenant of Tenth Infantry Is Under Charges.

Albuquerque, N. M., Dec. 10.—Judge B. S. Baker, of the second judicial district, associate justice of the United States supreme court, has been removed by President Roosevelt.

The Good Government League of this city has filed charges of extreme partisanship, and decisions in several important cases, said to be tinged with politics. It is also said the labor influence is used against the judge, as he has sentenced several prominent labor leaders to jail for violating injunctions. Baker has gone to Washington to make an effort to have the order recalled.

Reasons for Removal.

Washington, Dec. 10.—Explaining the reasons for the removal of the department of justice states: "It is found that Bernalillo county, in which Albuquerque is situated, has political and official affairs in bad condition. Improper jury commissioners were appointed and selected jurors were tampered with. The Sunday law is not enforced against gambling and saloons. Baker is not doing what a judge should do to remedy evils."

Baker, however, is not deemed dishonest, or corrupt.

Lieutenant Under Charges.

Washington, Dec. 10.—Second Lieutenant Paul H. McDonald, of the 10th infantry, recently resigned, came to Washington to urge the acceptance of his resignation.

He has been placed under arrest on charges preferred by the regimental commander at Fort Lawton, Wash. The charges allege various irregularities in financial transactions, including the duplicating of pay accounts. McDonald had been sent to Fort Lawton.

PEORIA BANK ROBBED.

Two Men Secure Large Sum of Money and Escape.

Peoria, Ill., Dec. 10.—Two men held up the Peoria National Bank at 1:30 this afternoon. They entered with drawn revolvers and ordered the tellers to throw up their hands. The men did not obey quickly enough, and the robbers snapped revolvers, which refused to go off. They then beat the assistant cashier over the head, held another employe at bay, grabbed all the money in sight and escaped in a buggy. It is believed the amount taken is large.

Weber Will Not Talk.

Auburn, Cal., Dec. 10.—The grand jury did not take action today in regard to the robbery charge against Weber, as was expected. It is believed, however, the jury will file an indictment tomorrow. Fred Benesch, on whom Weber is trying to throw suspicion for the crime, visited the prisoner today, and urged him to confess. Weber is impassive and refused to dignify a reply.

Farmers Buying Automobiles.

As an indication to the outside world, perhaps carrying more weight than a detailed statement of the crops and prices in this favored section of God's country, it is stated to be a fact that the farmers in Umatilla county have been investing in automobiles, thus using their surplus cash from this year's crops. Only one more stage will make the limit, and next year we may hope to hear that the farmers have been buying airplanes. We hope they can do so, for none are more deserving. —Dayton Courier Press.

CATCH SALMON OUT OF SEASON

GREAT NUMBERS BEING TAKEN NEAR UMATILLA.

Water is Very Shallow and Fine Fish Are Caught on the Riffles by the Indians—All This Is Out of Season, and the Attention of the Warden Has Been Called to the Infractions of the Law—No Trouble From Japanese and Chinese.

Umatilla Indians are catching salmon in the river near Umatilla by the wholesale. Yesterday evening several Indians came up with sacks filled with splendid salmon, from 20 to 36 inches in length.

It is reported that large numbers of Indians are now fishing along the river just above the Holbrook dam, four miles east of Umatilla. The water is very shallow, and the salmon are easily caught, as they lodge on the riffles and are unable to get away.

The attention of the game and fish warden has been brought to the matter and he will make an investigation at once. Formerly the Japanese and Chinese section crews at Umatilla, Nolin, Echo and other points along the river have caught large numbers of salmon during the fall run, but no infractions of the law have been reported from that source this fall.

The run of salmon will be light, owing to the very low water in the Umatilla river. Few of the larger sizes have been seen in Pendleton this month, when usually they appear here in large numbers at this season of the year.

OREGON'S PINE WOODS.

Largest Forest of Sugar Pine in the World on Rogue River.

The great "silent places" of Oregon and the west are in the trackless woods of the Upper Rogue river sugar pine reserve, says the Pacific Monthly. This is the largest forest of sugar pine in the world.

Its giant trees are excelled only by the famous redwoods of California. The reserve embraces over 250 square miles, and adjoins the 249 square miles of Cedar Lake National park. As the whole is under the protecting care of rangers and park patrolmen, the 500 square miles of the two are practically one vast park.

There are many trees in the reserve that are from 25 to 34 feet about the base of the trunk. There are many trees larger than this in the Northwest, but they are not sugar pines. It is murder to cut a tree in this reserve. Men make their campfires of broken boughs and fallen wood, of which there is plenty.

Uncle Sam has a guarding hand over the "silent places," and he who builds a campfire there must leave no smoldering embers. In this reserve and by Rogue river gorge is Mills Falls, the fall of Mills creek over the canyon wall into the Rogue. It is a sheer fall of 186 feet.

SALVATION ARMY AND CHRISTMAS

Will Make a Systematic Effort to Make it a Day of Cheer for the Poor.

COLLECTIONS ARE BEING

TAKEN FOR THAT PURPOSE

The Army People Have Made an Enumeration of the Needy People in Pendleton and Find There Is a Place to Put All the Loose Change and Useful Articles That the Well-to-do Can Spare—Two Soldiers Are Busy Collecting Upon the Streets Today—Basket Dinner Is Probable.

You in your cozy home, with enough to wear, plenty to eat and drink and something for the luxuries of life if you so desire them, may not know that there are between 250 and 400 destitute men, women and children in the city of Pendleton. All of these are not reduced to actual want, but there are many of the little things that you consider necessities that are denied them.

Christmas means to the average person a time of good cheer when friend pleases friend with gifts, tastes of the good things and is made better for it. But there is another class, and its ranks are well filled, that is denied anything but the same coarse fare as any other time when the Yuletide comes, and the stocking is as empty Christmas morning as when it was cast off by its wearer the night before.

To give the poor of the land an opportunity to taste of Christmas sweetness, the Salvation Army each year on Christmas day provides a beautiful feast, free for all who will come and partake of it. Generally the dinners are put up in baskets, and the poor and the destitute may come and carry the food to their homes.

Ensign Heissinger, commanding the Pendleton barracks of the Salvation Army, stationed two soldiers with knittles on the street corners today to collect for the dinner to be given in this city. "There will be 250 to 400 persons who will partake of the dinner," he said.

DOCTORS TO PANAMA.

Pan-American Medical Congress to Meet on the Isthmus January 2-6.

The fourth annual meeting of the Pan-American Medical Congress will take place in Panama from January 2 to January 6, 1905. A large attendance from the United States is expected. Probably 300 or more physicians will go. Those members of the profession wishing to go from the Pacific states will communicate with Dr. Ramon Gutierrez, secretary of the association, at an early date at 75 West Fifty-fifth street, New York city.

There are three or four points of departure: New York, New Orleans, Vera Cruz and possibly Florida ports.

The Panama government has appropriated $25,000 for the entertainment of the delegates. After the congress ends most of the delegates are expected to attend the meeting of the Public Health Association in Havana a week later.

The congress in Panama will discuss questions of hygiene largely and matters pertaining to quarantine. The afternoons will be devoted to scientific sessions and the mornings and evenings to trips and social functions. The program in Panama will be a reception on the first day by President Amador of the Panama Republic, and the formal opening session of the congress the same evening.

On the second day there will be an excursion to the canal in the morning, meetings of the various sections in the afternoon, and a banquet in the evening. On the third day there will be an excursion down the bay to Taboga Island, where a Panama breakfast will be served, scientific sessions in the afternoon and a ball in the evening. On the fourth day there will be an excursion to the United States army barracks in the morning, section meetings in the afternoon and the formal closing session in the evening.

Miss Patterson is in better health and spirits today than before, and is constantly improving from the effects of her recent illness.
